10 rare, behind-the-scenes experiences focusing on French food, dining and the art of living

In celebration of romance, WonderfulTime, is offering 10 rare and authentic experiences focusing on fine food, entertaining Paris style, and the French art of living.

Experiencing Paris to the depths of your heart

WonderfulTime visitors, alone or in very small groups, have the pleasure of spending a few exceptional hours in the capable hands of our WonderfulTime Talents. Our Talents are passionate connoisseurs and recognized experts in their fields who are eager to share what they know and love with you, and to show you hidden facets of Paris and French culture that you are unlikely ever to see.

Through WonderfulTime, visitors can have a luxurious lunch with Pierre-Yves, a food critic and chef of the best bistro in Paris, or explore the mysteries of the French baguette in the kitchen with Frédéric, a French Master Baker, or meet with Lionel, an antique wine expert, in his 17th-century cellar, or even dine at a château with Torben and Laurent.

Special moments, intimate exchanges that will stay with you forever

French and foreign clients have all told us that their WonderfulTime experiences were memorable and magical.

Odile, who chose to explore the universe of culinary perfuming said, "It's an amazing experience in which Michèle revisits and transcends the classics of French haute cuisine in daring and creative ways. It was a unique and fun moment I'll never forget."

Peter, from Sydney adored the experience with Frédéric, the French Master Baker in his bakery "Great experience! Frederic and his team gave us a genuine, real-life insight into how a master French baker works his magic. It's amazing how much pride and passion Frederic puts into his craft. I'll definitely recommend this to friends who want a 'behind the scenes' French experience."

According to Stéphanie Hajjar, founder of WonderfulTime.com, "True luxury, today, is a combination of authentic experiences and being able to truly connect with other people. We want to our visitors to meet inspiring people in unique and intimate settings so that they will experience Paris and France in a different way. To achieve this, we place the bar very high when it comes to our Talents. We choose people who can share their passion with enthusiasm, who are recognized or award-winning experts in their fields, and who speak both French and English and, in some cases, even more languages."

About WonderfulTime
